Recognition of curses

There may be patterns in families and individual lives that indicate the presence of a curse. Curses can enter your life through previous generations. A curse can also be spoken over you—by yourself or by your ancestors. These curses can influence and even ruin your life. But Jesus came to give us life—life in abundance. He has set us free from every curse and every form of bondage. Below are seven common signs that a curse may be active in someone's life or family:

1. Mental or emotional breakdowns
2. Miscarriages or infertility
3. Divorce or a family falling apart
4. Constant financial shortages
5. Frequent accidents
6. Thoughts of death or suicide in the family
7. Hereditary diseases passed down from generation to generation

Symptoms of bad spirits

Repeated or Constant Emotional Problems

- Resentment, hatred, anger, inferiority, rejection, jealousy, fear depression, self-pity, sorrow, worry, insecurity, doubt.

Repeated Mental or Psychological Problems

- Spiritual torment, indecision, compromise, confusion, over-rationalizing, memory loss.

Repeated or Constant Sexual Problems

- Unclean thoughts that keep returning, fantasy, impure actions, unnatural or perverse tendencies.

Repeated or Constant Speech Problems

- Lying, swearing, blasphemy, criticism, mockery, gossip.

Physical Diseases

- Illnesses with no clear medical cause.

Voices

- Compelling thoughts or audible voices telling you to do something—these can be demonic.

Bonds through sins

Occultism and Spiritual Delusions

- Practices or associations such as: Hinduism/Buddhism and related arts or customs, Islam, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Freemasonry.
- Wizards, voodoo, fortune-telling, witchcraft, palm reading, horoscopes, pendulums, Tarot Cards, Ouija boards.
- Martial arts involving ancestor worship (e.g., karate).
- Acupuncture or alternative healing methods rooted in spiritualism.
- Doctrinal errors such as universal reconciliation — the belief that everyone eventually goes to heaven.
- Strong religious powers not rooted in Biblical truth.

Blood Guilt

- Acts such as murder, manslaughter, abortion, idolatry, sorcery, witchcraft, occultism, incest, adultery, rape, sexual acts with animals, and cursing father or mother.

Unhealthy Soul Ties

- Connections with people that create spiritual bondage:
- Ex-partners, old friendships, infidelity, occult involvement.

Sexual Uncleaness

- Any sexual activity outside of marriage between a man and a woman is considered unclean.
- This includes infidelity, incest, abuse, pornography, fantasies.

Negative Influences Before Birth

- The spiritual realm can influence a person even before birth.
- Demonic entry can occur during pregnancy.
- Children born from adultery, rape, or unwanted pregnancies.
- Words spoken during pregnancy can carry spiritual weight.

Extreme Influences in Childhood

- Early exposure to hatred, jealousy, arguments, anger, or divorce.
- Suppressive spirits like rejection, fear, loneliness, depression, misery, and manipulation can enter during childhood.

Emotional Overload

- Demons often attack during moments of weakness. (Eph 4:26-27)

Wrong Thinking

- Thoughts not submitted to the Word of God. (Rom 12:2)

Unforgiveness

- Unforgiveness opens the door to demonic influence: bitterness, anger, hatred, resentment.
- If we do not forgive others, we block God's forgiveness and restoration. (Mat 18:34)

Repenting and taking distance

- Make a list of sins from previous generations and those still active or unconfessed in your own life.
- Acknowledge your disobedience to God in these areas.
- Renounce them and declare that you no longer permit them in your life.
- Proclaim that every generational bond mentioned is cut off, and every personal sin bond is now broken.
- Command every generational curse, chain, or influence to leave your life and body in Jesus' name.

Do things God's way.

Your feelings are not the truth—God's Word is the truth. If you act based on emotion, you walk in the flesh; if you act based on the Word of God, His life will flow through you.

"He sent His word and healed them and delivered them from their destructions." — Psalm 107:20

"It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life." — John 6:63

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." — Matthew 11:28
